“Take heed, watch and pray; for you do not know when the time will come.” Mark 13:33

We all take things for granted. In particular, we take time for granted. Our lives are so busy, many of us are planning our time – our days, weeks, months, even years in advance. Remember, our time on earth is a gift. None of us knows how long we will be here. Start today and begin thanking God for each and every day. Take time in silence, every day, and listen to what God is saying to you.

MASS – “For from the rising of the sun even to the going down, my name is great among the Gentiles: and in every place there is sacrifice and there is offered to my name a clean oblation. For my name is great among the Gentiles, saith the Lord of hosts.” (Malachias 1-11)

A. The obligation of worship arising from the life God has given you

You know you are made by God. God gave you life. God makes it possible for you at this very moment to breathe, to walk, to talk. God keeps that little organ, the heart, beating in your breast. He gives you food and clothing. Make a list of what God has given you. He gives you everything. You give yourself nothing. The point is that you must acknowledge that God gives you everything you have. You acknowledge it by your private prayers, but especially by worshipping God, both in private and in public. To worship means to acknowledge your total dependence on God. You must worship your God. You are indebted to God. You cannot repay Him for what He has given you, but you can, and you must, recognize and acknowledge what He has done.

B. The obligation of Sunday worship from the law of God

So that you will not forget Him, God Himself tells you in the First Commandment, “I am the Lord thy God, thou shalt not have strange gods before Me.” Then more directly in the Third Commandment, God says to you: “Remember thou keep holy the Sabbath Day.” The obligation of worship on a particular day of the week we find in the Bible.

C. The obligation of Sunday worship from the fact that you are a parent

This section is addressed to parents. If not married yet, read it anyhow, because some day with the help of God you hope to be married, and to become a mother or father.

Parents must worship God on Sunday if they want their children to be good. One of the reasons sisters and priests sacrifice their lives is to make your children good boys and girls. If parents fail to worship God on Sunday they are destroying one of the basic influences of the Catholic school system or classes.

D. Your ancestors worshipped God on Sunday

Let us be practical about this matter of Sunday worship. Today many non-Catholics go to church when they please. Not so your good non-Catholic grandfather and grandmother. Sunday was the Lord’s Day. The Lord came first on Sunday. They knew they had an obligation to go to church every Sunday. You have the same obligation before God. All the priest is asking you to do is to come back at least to this part of your ancestors’ Christianity. Then you are on the road to practical Christianity.

E. Let us explain the obligation now

You probably know that all Catholics are seriously obliged to attend Mass every Sunday. God made all of us, and God made the same laws for all of us. There is not one set of God’s laws for Catholics and another set for those who are not in the Catholic Church. Therefore, we insist that all who are serious about God and religion must go to Mass. There are fifty-two Sundays, and in the United States, and Canada, six Holydays of Obligation. Anyone who is serious about Christianity must assist at Mass on these days, even when busy at home. There are valid understandable excuses for not worshipping God publicly on these fifty-eight days. They will be explained when we explain the Third Commandment. For the present, try to understand that it is a serious sin to miss Mass without a serious excuse.

Say a Prayer for members of our parish communities and non members who are experiencing or will be experiencing health issues and other concerns. No need to elaborate on the issue, but please forward their names to our bulletin email address. The one important request is that permission to print in the bulletin must be received from the person(s). This will be the responsibility of the person submitting the information. Fr. Joe had mentioned in one of his sermons that we should live our faith not just on Sundays but throughout the week. What better way to support our parish family than to Say a Prayer!

- ❖ Shirley Wark - prayers for a speedy recovery
- ❖ Greta Koreman & Family
- ❖ Members of our parish communities who are experiencing difficulties

In an effort to share the joy of Christ's birth and his love of the world this Christmas, the Catechism students and families are encouraged to join forces with the CWL in supporting the North End Women's Centre. This centre is a refuge for women who seek support, knowledge, and opportunity as they move forward on their journey towards independence and healthier lifestyle. With them, they also bring young and adolescent children who will not have the same comforts of home that we enjoy during the Christmas season. Students and families are encouraged to donate a simple gift for various age ranges or other staples of the season, such as chocolates, candy canes, hot chocolate packets etc. Gifts such as soccer balls, footballs or basketballs, trinkets or simple jewelry are very welcome so that each child receives a gift for Christmas. Not sure what to buy? Please also consider a cash donation. Donations will be accepted until the 17th of December. Please provide to your Catechism teacher or the Catechism coordinator.

Upcoming Catechism lessons:

December 3rd - Regular Lesson

December 10th - Partnership Sunday

December 17th - practice for Youth Christmas Eve Mass

Children and Youth Christmas Eve Mass - We are seeking children volunteers to take part in the Children's Christmas Eve Mass. Some of these part involve minor speaking roles. We encourage as many children as possible to take part in the children's pageant as well as filling other roles such as ushers and readers during this mass. Additionally, the choir will also be predominantly lead by the youth of St. Michaels. We encourage all youth in our parish to assist in providing music ministry for this mass if they do not wish to take part in other roles. If you have a young child or children.
